Dear People of God,

As part of the world-wide celebration of The Word called for by Pope Francis, I've been highlighting a few interesting facts about the Bible. I mentioned that the Book of Genesis is a collection of short oral stories told to respond to universal human questions. Every culture has asked them; in fact, if you watch the Science Channel, Discover, TLC, and others, we're still trying to answer many of those same questions.

Of course, the answers given by each culture reflect the cultural biases of that culture; for the Hebrews all the answers in one way or another will get back to one God who chose one people because he loved them. This foundational thread can be seen in even the darkest of stories. There are key questions everybody asks because everybody wants the answers so everybody can ultimately know "who we are." Here is a partial list of those key questions: Where did all this come from? How did we originate? Why are we special? Why are we different from our neighbors? Why is our language different? Why does evil exist? What comes after we die? How does the divine function?

If we're the "top of the line," why do lions, tigers and bears eat us? What's "out there" in the sky? You might reflect on how you asked these questions in your own way and how someone - your parents, your teachers, your church - answered them.

I remember having dinner with Mercey Eliade, one of the experts at the Vatican II Council (you can look him up on Formed - see the bulletin info to get free access). I was on the hospitality committee in college; among our duties was picking up our special guests, getting them to the hotel, and taking them to dinner. Given that I went to college in Houston at the height of the Apollo program (our biology department sent some experimental items to the moon on several voyages), I asked Eliade: "Did the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross save everybody "out there" or did God have to workout salvation for each stellar culture? He answered: "Well, Chris, I suppose we'll have to wait until we get there to find out, eh?" He was positive that our quest for the answer would lead us to the discovery of how to get "out there" to find out. It appears that we are still on that age-old quest.

Fr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 or call Deacon Tom on his cell phone at 567-686-4167 and leave a message with your phone number and he will return your call as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

Happenings at the Parish!

Low Gluten (3.3 ppm) Communion Breads

We have been asked by a number of people if we could offer gluten free host.

As of February 16, 2020 there will be a special communion station distributing low-gluten (3.3 ppm) host back by the small pulpit in front the St. Patrick's library.

There will be a sign-up sheet by the library in back of the church on the pulpit if you are in need of low gluten host. This will help us prepare each week for this need.

According to the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, "only low-gluten (partially gluten-free) hosts are valid matter, provided they contain a sufficient amount of gluten to obtain the confection of bread without the addition of foreign materials and without the use of procedures that would later the nature of bread."

If you have any questions please call the parish office at 419-243-6452 or see Nancy Rank.

Angels

We should also know the protection of St. Michael the Archangel. He appears in Scripture as the special guardian of God's people in the Old Testament (Dan 12:1) and the New (Rev 12:7). The church has always recognized St. Michael's role in the spiritual combat. He is invoked as a warrior against the devil and all rebel angels. Pray to St. Michael is especially powerful when we need deliverance from evil. For many years this traditional "St. Michael Prayer" was recited at the end of Mass and is being done now in most churches. Many Catholics retain it as part of their regular devotions:

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray. And do thou O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into help Satan and all other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls. Amen.

Taken from Signs of Life by Scott Hahn. For more information on Angels, go to FORMED

Did you Catch the Kiosk in the Back of Church?

Take a peek at our latest addition to resources in the back corner of church (near the library and gift shop.)

Lighthouse Media offers a multitude of CDs, books, and booklets for you to purchase at a nominal fee. Feel free to browse and buy. (The money slot is located near the bottom of the kiosk.)

Flu Season is Upon Us!

For the remainder of the flu season we will discontinue the precious blood at communion time.

Presentation of the Lord's Mass Sunday, February 2

Last Sunday there was an unfortunate mix-up in the Readings at Mass. The Sunday Lectionary was properly set for the 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time; However, the daily Feast of the Presentation was to be used. Those readings are not in the Sunday Lectionary. By the time the error was discovered it was time to begin Mass. Our apologies to the lectors, organist and choir, and the parish for the mistake. Steps are being taken to prevent this in the future.
