God took the fragrance
of a flower...
The majesty of a tree...
The gentleness of
morning dew...
The calm of a quiet sea...
The beauty
of the twilight hour...
The soul
of a starry night...
The laughter of a
rippling brook...
The grace of a bird
in flight...
Then God fashioned
from these things
A creation like no other,
And when his masterpiece was through
He called it simply -
Mother.

~Herbert Farnham

Dear People of God,

As we continue to follow the summons of our spiritual Father Pope Francis to pay special attention to The Word, I've been looking at some of the key issues raised in just one book of the Old Testament: Genesis.

Today I'd like to focus on an interesting topic that repeatedly occurs in the Book: Marriage. In fact, if you pay attention to the thematic notions layered into the stories collected in Genesis, you'll discover over 100 references to what marriage should be and what it shouldn't be. At the very beginning of the Book, as a central revelation of both of the creation texts, God lays out marriage as one man and one woman cooperating in the (a) stewardship of all creation and (b) the perpetuation of what God instituted in the initial creation Adam and Eve. The very words of Adam in Creation Two (the much older version) tell us a lot about marriage: "This at last is flesh of my flesh and bone of my bone." No wonder then that God says as a genuine marriage bond "What God has joined, no-one (not the partner, not the neighbor, not the courts, not the priest) may separate.

From the words of Adam (it's actually a song, the second one we find in Genesis; the first is God singing the creation of humankind in Creation One), we discover that a genuine marriage is the completion of the self in the person of the beloved: what is missing in the self is filled up with the spouse and the two do, in fact, become one, the one both were intended to be from the moment God said "Let there be light." All the remaining references, in one way or another, highlight the mistakes people make in seeking and finding the one person who God put out there to be the perfect spouse. You may want to search Formed to look into the role of marriage in Genesis. You may also want to look at my comment on "Marriage in Genesis" which should be available in the St. Patrick's library. It's pretty technical but includes a chart on the more important references to marriage in the Appendices so you can look them up and enjoy a good read.

Fr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 or call Deacon Tom on his cell phone at 567-686-4167 and leave a message with your phone number and he will return your call as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

HISTORIC CHURCH OF ST. PATRICK FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Dear HSP Family,

During this unprecedented period in our lives, we may be finding ourselves with time to take stock of all that we are grateful for. Our parish family is one of those things. We are learning that our parish is not a parish because of our beautiful building but because of all the beautiful people who make it up. We give thanks to our church ministers, to the greeters, to the readers, the acolytes, to the hospitality crew, and from the ushers and gift bearers to those who coordinate the various parts of the Mass. Without all of you our Masses wouldn't contain that weekly sparkle. Special thanks to our pantry and soup kitchen volunteers who help feed our neighbors in need especially during this critical time and to all those who maintain our buildings and grounds. To our parish staff who have had to quickly enter a more complex world of technology and uncertainty and still kept us well informed along the way. THANK YOU ALL FROM THE BOTTOM OF OUR HEARTS!

Planting of the Flower Urns here at HSP!

We still have several urns that need flowers!

Are you interested in sponsoring one of the flower urns in front of church? This means that you would be able to create and pot your own flowers or you can sponsor an urn with a $20.00 donation and we will purchase and plant for you. HSP will provide the pots and soil.

If you are interested please e-mail Sherri at sherri@stpatshistoric.org. We will not be doing a specific urn sign up this year. I will keep you updated on how many are left to be planted each week.

This year we would like to invite those of you who sign up to come anytime to do your planting before May 25.

To the Parishioners of St. Patrick's

Although people cannot come to Mass, please out of charity remember your weekly offertory. We also sympathize with those who have had their hours of work decreased and have a hard time just providing for their family. We understand that you need to adjust accordingly. Our staff continues to do the work of ministry. We need to keep the buildings opened and running, and provide the services we can.

You can drop off your envelope at the Parish Office or mail it to St. Patrick's, 130 Avondale, Toledo, OH 43604.

You can also access on-line donations on the front page of our web-site by clicking the "DONATE" button and you will be directed to the safe, secure, online PayPal portal where you can make your contribution via credit card or PayPal account.

You DO NOT NEED a PayPal account to make your contribution. Thank you!
