

Dear People of God,

In keeping with the recommendations of the Pope, I've been reflecting on The Word, specifically the first book of the Old Testament: Genesis. There are some great stories there, including several genealogies. We learn that the famous figures lived a long time and if you line them up from the time each one was born, you'll discover they all died in the Great Flood. Inspired by God, the Bible may include some human modifications to brag on the Hebrews, but far too much "adds up" so that there is ample proof that a real mind was behind the entire work.

Many ancient cultures in the Middle East record a Great Flood and most include a story similar to that of Noah. I hope all of us know that there really was a Great Flood: archaeologists all across the western deserts of Asia have discovered beneath the sand dunes thick layers of deposited mud and muck burying "lost civilizations" (you might want to research this on Formed, the free access provided by the parish). The flood appears to have been around 4 to 5 thousand years ago, and ancient cultures accepted that it was the result of human arrogance and disobedience; whether that means climate change caused weather patterns to bring all that rain is a mystery, but ancient authors certainly believed humankind brought on the great destruction such a flood caused.

The spiritual part of the flood story for the Hebrews and for us is two-fold. (1) Noah humbled himself. He wasn't powerful king or a potentate who could demand the forced labor of others to accomplish his desired needs; he was an ordinary person who accomplished extraordinary things because. . .

(2) Noah was absolutely obedient to the will of God. Let's be honest: building a huge boat in the middle of wastelands more famous for drought than rain would be a pretty odd vocation, yet Noah's faith inspired him to do as God asked, not to get a reward but to assure that God's plan for humanity would unfold for the good of humanity.

In the end Noah gives us an active example of what it means to "love God with all your heart, all your mind, all your soul, and all your strength." Keep in mind the lesson: Humble yourself to do the will of God and people may be reading about you years from now.

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 or call Deacon Tom on his cell phone at 567-686-4167 and leave a message with your phone number and he will return your call as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

Please pray for the men and women in military service.

Due to a potential threat to families of those in military service resulting from the members' names being publicized through the Internet, we no longer publish the names of men and women in military service. We encourage you to continue to pray for them and to remember all our troops in a special way on Fridays by praying a Rosary for those serving in the military.

HISTORIC CHURCH OF ST. PATRICK SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Dear HSP Family,

During this unprecedented period in our lives, we may be finding ourselves with time to take stock of all that we are grateful for. Our parish family is one of those things. We are learning that our parish is not a parish because of our beautiful building but because of all the beautiful people who make it up. We give thanks to our church ministers, to the greeters, to the readers, the acolytes, to the hospitality crew, and from the ushers and gift bearers to those who coordinate the various parts of the Mass. Without all of you our Masses wouldn't contain that weekly sparkle. Special thanks to our pantry and soup kitchen volunteers who help feed our neighbors in need especially during this critical time and to all those who maintain our buildings and grounds. To our parish staff who have had to quickly enter a more complex world of technology and uncertainty and still kept us well informed along the way. THANK YOU ALL FROM THE BOTTOM OF OUR HEARTS!

COVID-19 CHECKLIST FOR SETTING A NEW ROUTINE

Routine and schedule are especially important for children and help them feel a sense of stability, security, and structure. Set consistent start and end times for schooling or education. If possible, find out how your child's school organizes the day and frame your schedule in a similar way. Set times for chores, crafts, snacks, music, play, and naps or relaxation.
