Dear People of God,

I have proposed a theory that there are seven sacraments because, when push comes to shove, we humans will undertake essentially only seven basic actions. Everything we do can be categorized in terms of one or another of those seven basic activities. I hope you've been keeping track so you can try and prove there's an eighth when this little series is completed in another few weeks. So far I've explored beginnings (Baptism), commitments (Confirmation) and sharing meals (Eucharist). Today I want to look at the first of two sacraments of healing: Reconciliation.

Sacramental reconciliation has come on hard times over the past several decades and I'm not sure why although I would hazard to guess it is the sad result of far too many clergy seeing it as a way to punish rather than to reveal God's great mercy. Keep in mind that mercy is the framework because, after all, one of the seven basic human activities is to apologize or act when we're sorry for an action, a perception or some words we gave to others that are "offensive." We show the offended our regret and expect mercy in return. Children are taught to say "I'm sorry" at an early age and then never stop saying it to others, perhaps at work, at play, at school, at home, among strangers, or at the grocery store. All over the world "I'm sorry" is a universal human refrain and rouses the response of "apology accepted" in those or similar words. Today we even apologize for the acts of others from hundreds or even thousands of years into the past, as if we are responsible for what somebody did way back when to offend somebody else.

Reconciliation is, at its base, the repair of a broken relationship. Because we humans are fragile and weakened by original sin, it's easy to break down those relationships we are meant to make stronger. Because this urgency to make repairs is so wonderfully human, it's led to a built-in sense of doing so, often without thinking first because we want it to happen just that fast. A simple "excuse me" builds up the bonds between people with very little effort; just stop to think how often you've said those or similar words over the past few weeks and months.

By making himself present in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Jesus reminds us that any time we undertake to say "I'm sorry" and give and receive mercy, we are doing something innately holy and which raises the holiness level in the lives of others. That universal call to holiness I mentioned at the outset of this series isn't all that hard to manage; in fact, it's the human adventure.

You can find a treasury of information on remobilization on the FORMED platform, from some interesting historical insights to the more current interpretations being taught by Pope Francis.

Fr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 or call Deacon Tom on his cell phone at 419-984-0082 and leave a message with your phone number and he will return your call as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

HISTORIC CHURCH OF ST. PATRICK TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Liturgical Ministry Update

With the changes required by the Diocese of Toledo, the role of Liturgical Ministers will be different at our Masses for a while. Eucharistic Ministers will not be utilized as Communion will only be the Body of Christ and distributed by the priest and deacon. We will not have a choir, there will be no acolytes and no hospitality after Mass.

There are still ways to answer God's call to ministry, though. Please consider trying a new role at Mass. Once we have the names of the people willing to participate, a new schedule will be created and mailed.

Look forward to seeing you!

Msgr. Chris

Liturgical Ministers during COVID-19

Lector – We still need proclaimers of the Word at both the 8 a.m. Mass and 10 a.m. Mass on Sunday mornings. We will happily train anyone interested in serving as lectors who have not read at Mass before.

What to know:

Lectors must be age 65 or younger to be on the altar, or willing to sign a waiver

Lectors may read both readings and the stanzas of the psalm

If there are two lectors for Mass, there will be six feet of separation between the seats for proper social distancing

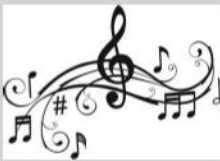

Lectors will receive Holy Communion on the altar

Ushers – We need ushers to help dismiss parishioners at the end of Mass to receive Holy Communion before exiting the church. We will provide training for anyone new to the role of usher at HSP.

What to know:

All ushers must wear masks

How to sign up – Call Sherri in the Parish Office at 419.243.6452, or talk to Pat Thompson, Mary Kay McPartlin or Martha Farrell after Mass

St. Teresa of Kolkata is known throughout the world as a woman who was totally committed to the Gospel. In this inspiring talk, she shares her insights on the Blessed Virgin Mary as a model of womanhood and perfect discipleship. She shows us that we, too, can do the will of God by saying "yes" to the Lord in the big and little things in our lives; nothing is too insignificant.

Historic St. Patrick Sunday Mass on YouTube

In our continuing search to make Mass from HSP available to all parishioners, we are now able to upload videos of our Masses to the Historic Church of Saint Patrick YouTube page. We cannot livestream the Mass on YouTube just yet, but we can post the video recording to YouTube once Mass is over. To access the video, people can subscribe to Historic Church of Saint Patrick's YouTube channel, receiving a notification once the video is posted or get the video link in from the email sent out to all parishioners. Just like our Moments with Monsignor series of videos, it is not necessary to have a YouTube account to watch any of our parish videos. Just use the link in the parish email to access the video.

We continue to spread our parish ministry on social media, bringing the joyous news of Jesus to the world. Thank you for always supporting our parish with your time, talent and treasure. A special thanks to parishioner Morgan McCormick for working out the logistics of getting videos on YouTube and for his dedication to running the camera on Sundays for our livestream Mass. Thanks also to parishioner Amy Coronado for her camera work on Wednesday evening Masses and to parishioner Brian Nowicki for being our video back-up guy. We are blessed with a great tech team!
