Dear People of God,

Before concluding my series on the seven sacraments, I want to pause to answer a question posed by a parishioner who read about a "Holy Minute" and wondered what it was and how you'd do it. I had mentioned that many people take time to do a Holy Hour with the Blessed Sacrament and I said we might want to stop in our busy lives and do a Holy Minute reflecting on and with the Jesus who is bonded to us in the partnership created by the sacraments, especially the Eucharist. For most of us, the Holy Hour seems the easier meditation because we can focus on the reserved Sacrament without diving too deep into the Paschal Mystery and its transformational effects on us..

So, the Holy Minute I'm suggesting is a brief moment looking inward and feeling/sensing/experiencing the presence of Jesus, the very real Christ within. It's best to do this without the distractions of the contemporary world, so turn off the cell phone - no one calling you is more important than God; turn off the TV, turn off the music and create a space filled with silence, or if you're on the back deck/patio, filled with the sounds of creation. Close your eyes and feel yourself, perhaps your hand or your ears or nose and allow that feeling to become permeated with the presence of Jesus. For example, if you focus on your hand, feel the rough, calloused hand of a carpenter, feel your hand reaching out to touch someone, someone hurting and perhaps dying who has placed all their trust in the Christ to perform a miracle.

Allow your feeling to sense the power of God racing along the arm, into the fingers and from there leaping into the life of the one touched, perhaps envisioning a leper who is suddenly cleansed. Allow yourself to sense the unique partnership created between you and Jesus, savor the sensation of God's participation in your hand when it does its own work in the here and now. By the grace of God and Jesus' presence in the sacraments, you can defy time itself and be present with Jesus in the people he touched with his hands, with his voice, with his love in the past, the present and the future. For a brief instant, forget yourself as you perceive yourself in order to be and allow this amazing partnership to reveal for you the person you have become with Jesus present in and with you.

Like anything else this takes practice because we've trained ourselves not to do it. We prefer, most of us, to think Jesus does things for others or that he's best left in the tabernacle so sensing the divine presence will take some work,. But give it a try. You might be surprised at what he reveals, how you feel and what you can suddenly figure out you can accomplish. You'll never tell anyone "God go with you" the same again!

Fr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 or call Deacon Tom on his cell phone at 419-984-0082 and leave a message with your phone number and he will return your call as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

HISTORIC CHURCH OF ST. PATRICK

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Liturgical Ministry Update

With the changes required by the Diocese of Toledo, the role of Liturgical Ministers will be different at our Masses for a while. Eucharistic Ministers will not be utilized as Communion will only be the Body of Christ and distributed by the priest and deacon. We will not have a choir, there will be no acolytes and no hospitality after Mass.

There are still ways to answer God's call to ministry, though. Please consider trying a new role at Mass. Once we have the names of the people willing to participate, a new schedule will be created and mailed.

Look forward to seeing you!

Msgr. Chris

Liturgical Ministers during COVID-19

Lector – We still need proclaimers of the Word at both the 8 a.m. Mass and 10 a.m. Mass on Sunday mornings. We will happily train anyone interested in serving as lectors who have not read at Mass before.

What to know:

Lectors must be age 65 or younger to be on the altar, or willing to sign a waiver

Lectors may read both readings and the stanzas of the psalm

If there are two lectors for Mass, there will be six feet of separation between the seats for proper social distancing

Lectors will receive Holy Communion on the altar

Ushers – We need ushers to help dismiss parishioners at the end of Mass to receive Holy Communion before exiting the church. We will provide training for anyone new to the role of usher at HSP.

What to know:

All ushers must wear masks

How to sign up – Call Sherri in the Parish Office at 419.243.6452, or talk to Pat Thompson, Mary Kay McPartlin or Martha Farrell after Mass

LITURGICAL MUSIC FOR TODAY'S MASS

FORMED PICK OF THE WEEK

Lead Kindly Light

An influential teacher, a distinguished theologian, a man who endured many trials, a father of souls—Blessed John Henry Newman (1801 - 1890) remains as fresh and relevant today as he was during his lifetime. In this engaging film, Fr. Nicholas Schofield and Fr. Marcus Holden, hosts of several other Ignatius films, present the inspiring story of Newman's life and visit the places in England where he lived and worked.

Reminder!

If your child (grades K-8) needs to attend Religious Education classes, send their name(s), grade level(s), parental contact info, and the sacraments they will be preparing for, if applicable, to Michelle Zuelke (mazuelke@umich.edu). Please send this information by 9/18/20. We expect both regular and sacramental preparation classes to begin early October.

Historic St. Patrick Sunday Mass on YouTube

In our continuing search to make Mass from HSP available to all parishioners, we are now able to upload videos of our Masses to the Historic Church of Saint Patrick YouTube page. We cannot livestream the Mass on YouTube just yet, but we can post the video recording to YouTube once Mass is over. To access the video, people can subscribe to Historic Church of Saint Patrick's YouTube channel, receiving a notification once the video is posted or get the video link in from the email sent out to all parishioners. Just like our Moments with Monsignor series of videos, it is not necessary to have a YouTube account to watch any of our parish videos. Just use the link in the parish email to access the video.

We continue to spread our parish ministry on social media, bringing the joyous news of Jesus to the world. Thank you for always supporting our parish with your time, talent and treasure. A special thanks to parishioner Morgan McCormick for working out the logistics of getting videos on YouTube and for his dedication to running the camera on Sundays for our livestream Mass. Thanks also to parishioner Amy Coronado for her camera work on Wednesday evening Masses and to parishioner Brian Nowicki for being our video back-up guy. We are blessed with a great tech team!
