Dear People of God,

I had an interesting conversation with someone of another ecclesial community (Church) who told me he accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Lord and savior at baptism. The Catechism of The Catholic Church reminds us that faith, one's conversion to Jesus as a savior, occurs before baptism and leads us to an ecclesial community or Church where baptism provides the external sign and symbol of our becoming part of that Church. For Catholics we believe that baptism joins us to the universal Body of Christ; thus, while baptism generally marks us as Catholics, we don't need to ever re-baptize those baptized in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit in any other ecclesial community since our faith tells us that baptism is once for all.

As a sign of membership, baptism obliges us to become a genuine, active part of the community in which we have been baptized. Recall the words of Jesus to the Disciples as he prepared to ascend to the Father: go, teach all nations, baptizing them. . . . Given the genuine, active role of membership conferred by baptism means we should always and ever be disciples, a word which means "student of an admitted Master."

Students learn and that's the real emphasis we ought to be putting on our baptism. We should learn everything we can about God, Jesus, salvation, Sacraments, the hierarchical structures of our Church and its Mission and Ministry. We should then become active and involved in what our Church does, from being part of the praying community on a regular basis to volunteering for any of its many ministries.

That involvement is the way we take up the same work of teaching which Jesus gave to the disciples and all those who follow in their footsteps. The most important aspect of the teaching we do in accord with the Gospels is to invite others to come along with us on the journey of faith in the Catholic community. Making good use of FORMED can give all of us some great ideas on how to do that all-important inviting.

Why not take up the challenge of discipleship and over the next months before October (when RCIA begins in earnest), ask ten people, especially a few younger ones, to give serious thought to becoming a Catholic? Fifty positive responses would certainly be a great blessing not only for the parish but also for your exercise of your baptismal membership and your confirmation commitment.

Since I recently wrote about using the FORMED platform, here are two opportunities for nurturing your faith which are relevant to today's bulletin letter. You can read the essential teachings of the Catholic Church in the Catechism of the Catholic Church beginning at §1213 with a brief summary at §§1275-1284. Or you can have all of this explained in a video or audio presentation by going to the FORMED platform: look up the sacrament of baptism and find a wealth of material to choose from.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 or call Deacon Tom on his cell phone at 419-984-0082 and leave a message with your phone number and he will return your call as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

Please inform the pastoral staff of those in our parish family needing our prayers. Our Hospital Ministry Team is available to visit and distribute communion.

Please pray for the men and women in military service.

Due to a potential threat to families of those in military service resulting from the members' names being publicized through the Internet, we no longer publish the names of men and women in military service. We encourage you to continue to pray for them and to remember all our troops in a special way on Fridays by praying a Rosary for those serving in the military.

Last Call!!!

Donors of $25.00 or more will be invited to design session to create the layout of the garden and submit the design plans for a truly unique statue of St. Joseph which will be a wonderful tribute from the Historic Church of St. Patrick to the community.

This year has been one for the books and we are so thankful for the many people who kept our parish running smoothly.

A BIG IRISH THANK YOU TO:

Monsignor Chris and our Office Staff for keeping us informed and technologically equipped to participate in Mass either at home or in our beautiful church.

 Rusty Belcher for keeping the church clean and sanitized after each Mass and event and for many other tasks too numerous to list.

Pat Thompson and Mary Kay McPartlin for organizing readers and Eucharistic ministers along with a multitude of other tasks.

Daniel Button for adapting our music to fit the Covid singing restrictions.

Morgan McCormick, Brian Nowicki, and Amy Coronado for streaming our Masses, weddings, and funerals.

Martha Farrell and all the participants who continued their faith formation through Zoom.

Pantry/Soup Kitchen Volunteers for their continued support to keep the community fed.

All those who were not named but whose efforts during this time are greatly appreciated.
