Dear People of God,

I have been asked by parishioners at both of my parishes what the salty, white scale is on interior and exterior walls, as shown in these two images from the parishes. As I hope all of us learned in chemistry class or by watching DIY shows on TV, water is the principal enemy of any construction and can do untold damage to churches as well as homes. Repairs and conservation can be very expensive which is why we want to move as quickly as possible to prevent water damage.

When water invades rock or stone, brick or mortar, it begins to dissolve the structural 'cement' that holds the material together. For example, in the image of stone being conserved at Historic St. Patrick, water got into the sandstone and began to dissolve the calcium deposits which maintain the integrity of the particles of sand (quartz which is generally impervious to water on its own).

The water works its way along weaker sections splitting the stone, causing it to 'spall' or break off in surface slabs.

You can see this splitting at work at the top of the photo. The dissolved calcium salts eventually rise to the surface and as the water evaporates, the salts remain behind as the white scale we can see in the picture.

Properly fired brick is often resistant to water, as is concrete sealed against water damage when it's installed, but the mortar holding the bricks together is not and water can and does invade the mortar joints and cause similar dissolution of the chemicals in the mortar. Concrete and cement suffer similar damage when they are repeatedly exposed to water. A white, powdery residue results where water flows only slowly while a buildup of salts similar to the formation of stalagmites can occur where water flows with some regularity. This can be seen in the brickwork and concrete facing on the piers at Immaculate Conception. The process is known as efflorescence and we don't want to see it happening. It is a situation being monitored and addressed at both parishes.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 or call Deacon Tom on his cell phone at 419-984-0082 and leave a message with your phone number and he will return your call as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

Salvation History #5 Prophets

The period that followed the Kings of Israel, is known as the time of the Prophets. Three of the major prophets are Isaiah, Jeremiah and Ezekiel. These men called the people of Israel and Judah to repentance and faith in God. Isaiah's prophecies are particularly significant to Christians, since he foretold the coming of the Messiah, who would be known by this sign: "A virgin shall be with child, and bear a son, and shall name him Immanuel."

Due to the requirements of their jobs, thousands of our First Responders have contracted COVID 19 during the worldwide pandemic. Several hundred have died-an average of nearly 1 per day in 2020- and others continue to add to that devastating toll as a result of medical complications from contracting the virus on duty. They have given their lives for us as surely as a firefighter who dies responding to a fire or a police officer who is shot while apprehending a criminal.

Please keep in prayer the First Responders who have given their lives to keep us safe, and their grieving families and departments.
