planning to attend
by letting me know at church or by calling

The Historic Church of Saint Patrick

Tour Guides needed

As many of you know, parishioner John Best, shared his love of The Historic Church of Saint Patrick in tours for visitors to our parish. We would like to have a team of people take on this task now that John has been promoted to Heavenly Tour Guide.

John left us with his research and all the information he shared with visitors. Are you willing to share some of that information on tour days? We would like to have people at different stations around the church to talk about:

art and architecture

cost of the different materials in the church

answer questions at the museum

the organ and music

work at the gift shop

Each tour begins with the parish history, then people can wander the church to find out more details. Informational materials will be provided for each station — all we need are enthusiastic people who love our parish to share the info!

Our first tour of 2022 is Saturday, March 12 at 1 p.m. Parishioners from St. Michael's in Findlay will pilgrimage to Toledo to visit Holy Rosary Cathedral in the morning and after lunch tour Historic Church of Saint Patrick.

For more information, contact the parish office at 419.243.6452 ext. 3 or talk to Mary Kay after Mass.
