Dear People of God,

The Seven Deadly Sins: we've taken a very brief look at most of them and today we'll linger a while over Greed which you may have thought was gluttony but isn't. Often called avarice, greed is the sinful accumulation of things at the expense of others. Our love of self isn't real so there's no accompanying love of others.

Of course, we're allowed to accumulate. Most of us have collections, from buttons to stamps, from coins to cars to name a few. This is usually wholesome and good and provides meaning to our lives. Most of us will also share those hobbies with others. We display our things at shows and where they can be appreciated by other people who have similar hobbies. Greed doesn't generally go on display.

In fact, some people hoard things for no apparent reason, hiding them even from themselves and rarely if ever taking them out to admire them or show them to anyone else. Greed makes us wary of others who might want to grasp what we have so it tends to make us avoid others, socially isolating us and allowing relationships to wither and die.

The greedy person has stuff just to have stuff, usually has no real ideas what stuff (s)he has and wouldn't think of giving any of it to somebody who might actually need it to survive. There's no real point in having what the greedy person has except that (s)he believes that things will give the happiness that is lacking because the greedy individual doesn't love himself for just being himself.

There are TV shows which focus on greed. One of them follows the tragic difficulties encountered with people who hoard anything and everything to the point where they can't navigate their own homes. Another takes us to the local storage unit where the contents are auctioned off because somebody has so much they have no idea they have stuff at the storage locker so forget to pay the freight or, far worse, feel what they've hoarded doesn't give the meaning to life they thought it would so simply abandon it.

Of course, the answer to greed is a willingness to share, even if that means giving away what we've accumulated. The gift of things is often the gift of self, the gift of love because we love others to whom we give those things.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 or call Deacon Tom on his cell phone at 419-984-0082 and leave a message with your phone number and he will return your call as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors
