Dear People of God,

As your pastor I watch things closely and perhaps most closely attendance and weekly offerings. Since the Covid-19 pandemic struck, I have seen two statistics which are troubling to me and ought to be to everyone who loves the parish. The first and most disconcerting is the failure of parishioners to return to the weekly celebration of the Eucharist. This is a tragedy on the spiritual level because it says a lot about whether people truly accept the teaching of Jesus that he is truly present in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The Catholic Church is built on our faith in the real presence; seeing the empty pews saddens me because in these times, we need that underlying faith and the real presence more than ever.

I know many people measure their faith by whether they like the pastor or not. That's an ineffective way to react to the actual presence of Jesus brought about by the priest whether he's great guy or a surly shepherd, whether he can preach well or his homilies leave us wondering what on earth he was talking about, whether we can easily hear him or only get a garbled mumble. Behind the priest, whoever and whatever he might be, is Jesus the Christ manifesting himself through the priest for the benefit of the people. Basing our faith on externals is a tragic misunderstanding of why we ought to be at Mass every Sunday. We aren't there for Father; we're there first and foremost because of Jesus, to hear his word with spiritual ears so we don't need to hear everything Father says but do need to be present for what the Spirit will tell us inwardly. We're there for the others who are there, to build up the Body of Christ of which we all form a part due to Baptism; to invigorate the faith of all those others by sharing our own faith. We're there for ourselves, to take full advantage of the richness of that same Body of Christ, to share at the table in the true and very real presence of the divine and to be transformed more and more into the image of the compassionate and loving God.

These wonderful and amazing elements are much more difficult to find and experience out in the world at large, even in that sunny forest glade where we may go to commune with the creator in the midst of his creation. That's well and good and we ought to do it now and then, but faith should impel us to find others of like belief and celebrate with them on a regular basis.

In a practical sense, attendance is the primary tool which closes parishes as it slowly turns in a negative direction. The loss of participants weakens those who remain, weakens the capacity of the parish to do God's work and eventually makes the parish wither and die. Sadly, that's generally when those who haven't been around for years get all up in arms because "how can they close my parish?" It's only "mine" if I am a real part of it in the here and now. I value all our parishioners and appreciate those who have returned and who have made attendance here a priority; I invite those who have been reluctant to physically return to rejoin our faithful community of worshippers. I look forward to seeing everyone.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 or call Deacon Tom on his cell phone at 419-984-0082 and leave a message with your phone number and he will return your call as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

Please inform the pastoral staff of those in our parish family needing our prayers. Our Hospital Ministry Team is available to visit and distribute communion.

Please pray for the men and women in military service.

Due to a potential threat to families of those in military service resulting from the members' names being publicized through the Internet, we no longer publish the names of men and women in military service. We encourage you to continue to pray for them and to remember all our troops in a special way on Fridays by praying a Rosary for those serving in the military.
