Dear People of God,

A warm welcome to our guests, visitors and their families as we celebrate this weekend's liturgy. Today we pause to celebrate the Blue Mass. We might think of it passively as our blue mass, but in reality churches all across the nation are honoring those who stand on duty to protect and to serve and in a special way to pray for the repose of the souls of those who made the ultimate sacrifice on behalf of their communities. I sign a note of condolence to each department which has experienced the loss of one of its own and there are far more of them than one might think. It's a dangerous profession and we give thanks to those intrepid men and women who are willing to daily stand up to make our lives more secure.

We might think only of the city police or the sheriff's department, but there are many jurisdictions which provide protective services. Here in Toledo you can find US Marshals, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Ohio Highway Patrol, the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation, the Federal Border Patrol (yes, we have an international border right here in Toledo), the ATF police, railroad police, refinery police, private security guards and perhaps others with which I am not familiar. Each demands a high level of formation and experience with on-going training to assure that you and I can rest as easily as possible.

It's a difficult assignment, especially today when violence on our streets and in our homes has risen to unprecedented levels: drive by shootings, assaults on the sidewalks, domestic violence, cases of abuse and negligence that would break the hardest heart seem too often to make the news. I imagine the emotional toll is incredible and certainly offer my sincere thanks personally and on behalf of everyone to those who are willing to face all of this every day.

A hearty thanks to all who are joining us today or who are out there working on our behalf. May God hold you in the hollow of his hand so that your work can be done safely and effectively and bring you safely back to your families and loved ones. All of us here at the Historic Church of St. Patrick have you in our prayers, not just today but always.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 or call Deacon Tom on his cell phone at 419-984-0082 and leave a message with your phone number and he will return your call as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

We encourage you to continue to pray for them and to remember all our troops in a special way on Fridays by praying a Rosary for those serving in the military.
