Dear People of God,

It's hard to believe that we're over half way through the Liturgical Year. We've celebrated Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter and are now in that long period known as Ordinary Time. While the title is ordinary, what's happening isn't – it's supposed to be extraordinary!

The weeks leading us to the conclusion of the Liturgical year are meant to be the time devoted by the faithful to putting into practice what was learned during the High Holy Days. Each Season imparts some particular directive which ought to shape how we celebrate, pray and give due adoration and honor to God. Unfortunately, all too often, because it's just ordinary, it risks becoming something to skip through or skip altogether when it should be a time for a heightened experience of the actual work of being a Christian and a Catholic, to branch out from the pew into the world to proclaim the wonder of the God of Love.

Let's review what we should have picked up from the seasons and perhaps see how it could be used to make Ordinary Time Extraordinary.

Advent: Expectation and hope. What do you, or we as a community, expect tomorrow or down the way in our pilgrimage toward the end times? Do we take actual time to consider tomorrow or the distant future of parish and church? Do we bring to our expectations a hope for the real presence of Jesus Christ in our actions, lives, celebrations and in the world around us?

Christmas: Fulfillment, presence, gift. Jesus' birth was the end point of at least two thousand years of prophesy and promise. He is himself God's gift of himself to the world, and to each of us in a special way through baptism and the other sacraments. Do we truly appreciate the gift of Jesus? The wonder of his presence in the Eucharist? The miracle of his presence in each of us?

Lent: Remorse, sorrow, reconciliation. The tragedy of Jesus' suffering and death are the fault of our sinfulness, not just that of Adam and Eve. We all sin. Are we remorseful for the damage done to ourselves, others and the world because of our sin? Do we adequately express our sorrow and seek and give forgiveness to others?

Easter: Triumph, life over death, resurrection. These terms all point to a time beyond time, after physical death and the end of all things. Are we ready for that? Are we prepared for our own death? Have we planned for the day when we're no longer here?

Ordinary Time is a chance to do our homework and advance along the way to God's kingdom. This is a year to make it extraordinary.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 or call Deacon Tom on his cell phone at 419-984-0082 and leave a message with your phone number and he will return your call as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452, ext. 3 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

Please inform the pastoral staff of those in our parish family needing our prayers. Our Hospital Ministry Team is available to visit and distribute communion.

Please pray for the men and women in military service.

Due to a potential threat to families of those in military service resulting from the members' names being publicized through the Internet, we no longer publish the names of men and women in military service. We encourage you to continue to pray for them and to remember all our troops in a special way on Fridays by praying a Rosary for those serving in the military.

Fall Bible Studies

Join us Tuesdays, September 6-October 25 (6:30-8) when we study Hebrews: The New and Eternal Covenant.

Did you know that the book of Hebrews is like a little Catechism? It is steeped in rich truths that are foundational to our Catholic Faith. (Cost for workbook: $29.95)

Speaking of the Catechism.... Wednesdays, September 7-October 26 (6:30-8) we will study The Catechism of the Catholic Church. Real+True has created a way to share and explain the Catechism in a beautiful, captivating, and relevant format. (Cost: Free)
Both studies are inside our beautiful church.
