Dear People of God,

I've been touching on the arguments in favor of abortion on demand and why the so-called argument of some preeminent reproductive right is specious (full of holes). The reproductive right is human intercourse and if we choose to exercise the right, we may well encounter the rather common consequence of having used the right: a conception and pregnancy. The conception and pregnancy are not the right; they are the result of using it. Because pregnancy entails the presence of another human person with the same rights any of us has (life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness and the reproductive right we have been discussing) we may discover that there are obligations toward that other human person. The so-called argument of reproductive right is usually raised up in order to avoid the consequences of having exercised the right.

We need to take a side trip here because many women who seek an abortion live in circumstances which make them leery or afraid to take on the obligations because they can't. Poverty, homelessness and other conditions of life are such that these women simply cannot afford a child or don't want to bring one into the same situation of no job, no income and poor housing. We might respond that they shouldn't be exercising the reproductive right but our culture resists any real effort, legal or religious, to constrain the exercise of that right, particularly by far too many men who inveigle woman into the back seat of the '57 Chevy and can conveniently provide the mechanism for avoiding either the consequences or the obligations.

Sadly, the entitlement culture also tends to provide impetus for avoiding the consequences and obligations of using the reproductive right. The entitled will say they have a right to the great good feelings aroused but can easily get rid of any "leftovers" they don't want to deal with. It's obvious that the entitled do not consider any of the purposes outlined in the preamble (more than likely because they don't even know them) nor ask themselves or their partner how the exercise of the reproductive right tonight fulfills its goals to. . .

- form a more perfect Union,
- establish Justice,
- insure domestic Tranquility,
- provide for the common defense,
- promote the general Welfare,

secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity

By the same token, most Christians rarely if ever consider the mandate of God to steward the created order when they elect to make use of the reproductive right or choose to disregard the expectation of the Church that they willingly accept the consequences and obligations which may result from the exercise of the right. We'll continue next Sunday as we shift the focus from rights to the pro-choice claim of self-determination and privacy regarding one's body.

Msgr. Chris

The Celebration of Sacraments

Infant Baptism: The Sacrament of Baptism is regularly celebrated on Sunday during or after the Eucharistic Liturgy. Registered parishioners are asked to arrange for the Baptismal Preparation Class and the Liturgical Celebration by calling the Parish Office.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults: RCIA is the process of growing in your faith and love of God. Weekly gatherings take place from September until Easter. If you are interested in learning about Catholicism and joining us please call Deacon Tom at the rectory.

Penance: The Sacrament of Penance is celebrated at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday at IC, 9:30 a.m. at HSP and 10:30 a.m. IC every Sunday or by appointment.

Matrimony: Anyone planning to be married must contact the parish at least six months in advance. The exact date and time of your wedding should not be determined until after consultation with a priest or deacon. If either party has previously been civilly or religiously married, the Presider is not permitted to set a date for the wedding without resolving the previous marriage.

Pastoral Care of the Sick: When a parishioner is admitted to the hospital, nursing home, or confined to home because of age or infirmity, please call the Parish Office. Parishioners are ready to visit and to bring Holy Communion. When one is seriously ill, the healing Presence of the Lord should be requested in the Sacrament of the Sick.

In the event that you are in need of a priest or deacon and there is no one in the office: Please try the emergency number at 419-243-6031 and leave a message with your phone number and your call will be returned as soon as possible.

Welcome Visitors

We would like to welcome our visitors to Historic St. Patrick. If you are interested in becoming a parishioner, please call the parish office at 419-243-6452, ext. 3 or fill out the registration forms in the back of church or on the web-site and return to the parish office.

Please inform the pastoral staff of those in our parish family needing our prayers. Our Hospital Ministry Team is available to visit and distribute communion.

Please pray for the men and women in military service.

Due to a potential threat to families of those in military service resulting from the members' names being publicized through the Internet, we no longer publish the names of men and women in military service. We encourage you to continue to pray for them and to remember all our troops in a special way on Fridays by praying a Rosary for those serving in the military.

Friends for life,

Every year, the Office for Life and Justice leads a pilgrimage to the National March for Life in Washington, D.C. You are invited to join thousands of pro-life Americans as we march against abortion and build a culture of life.

This year, our pilgrimage will take place from Thursday, January 18th through Saturday, January 20th, 2024 and is open to all high schoolers and their chaperones, college students, young adults age 18-35!

Thanks to the generosity of the Knights of Columbus councils of our Diocese, the cost of registration is lowered this year to just $200 per person!

Register today and join our pilgrimage headed to Washington DC for the largest and longest-standing human rights demonstration in US history. Our two 56-passenger charter buses will depart from St. Thomas More University Parish in Bowling Green the morning of January 18th and return late the night of January 20th.

The deadline to register is DECEMBER 1, 2023. To sign up, go online to toledodiocese.org/marchforlife and either register as an individual participant by credit card, or pay by check over the mail for groups (separate links for each option on the website coming soon!). For those who register your group and want to pay by check, please have your checks postmarked in the mail by NOVEMBER 1, 2023.

For any questions, please reach Students for Life Coordinator, Allison Stump, by email at astump@toledodiocese.org or by phone at 419-214-4973.
